

SIUE School of Pharmacy Presents:

Unconscious Bias in Caring for Patients

Who: Pharmacists, Nurses, other health care professionals
What: Continuing Pharmacist Education activity
When: Thursday September 21, 2017
Where: SIUE School of Pharmacy
Why: Come to learn, meet other health care providers and improve your skills

2:25 PM - 2:30 PM Speaker Introduction and Announcements
2:30 PM – 4:30 PM Continuing Education Activity

This is a knowledge-based Activity

Objectives: After successful completion, the participant should be able to

1. Explain how unconscious bias works, and its various types.
2. Recognize where and how unconscious bias manifests throughout behavior.
3. Propose strategies to reduce the harmful impact of unconscious bias on reaching organizational goals.

Speaker: Catrina Salama, M.A.

Training and Education Manager, Diversity Awareness Partnership

Contact: Walter Siganga, Director of CPE, Telephone (618) 650-5135, email wsigang@siue.edu

There is a no registration fee for this activity.

Registration at: <http://siuece.learningexpressce.com> Registration opens 8/31/2017

PHARMACISTS: Southern Illinois University Edwardsville School of Pharmacy is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a provider of continuing pharmacy education. This application-based activity is designated for 2.0 contact hours (0.2 CEUs).

UAN 0480-0000-17-012-L04-P.

Participants must complete the entire activity and meet all activity requirements in order to obtain credit. No partial credit can be awarded. In addition, participants must complete an evaluation following the completion of the activity.